- Selflessness. Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.
- Integrity. Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.
- Objectivity. Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially fairly and on merit using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
- Accountability. Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.
- Openness. Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.
- Honesty. Holders of public office should be truthful.
- Leadership. Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

6.2 Subject to paragraphs 8.1 to 8.4 (dispensations), if you are aware that you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in any matter on which either:

- (a) you are authorised to make decisions, or
- (b) you are consulted by an Officer discharging powers delegated to them, you must not, in relation to (a) above, take any decision on that matter or, in relation to (b) above, participate in any consultation with such Officer in respect of that matter.

Where you have not previously notified the Proper Officer of that disclosable pecuniary interest you must do so within 28 days of the date on which it became apparent.

- 8.2 The Proper Officer may, after having had regard to all relevant circumstances, grant a dispensation to the Councillor or Co-opted Member only if, she considers that without the dispensation:

- 8.3 The Standards Committee of Mid Devon District Council may, after having had regard to all relevant circumstances, grant a dispensation to the Councillor or Co-opted Member only if, the Committee considers that:
  - (a) without the dispensation the representation of different political groups on the body transacting the particular business would be so upset as to alter the likely outcome of any vote relating to that business, or
  - (b) granting the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the District, or
  - (c) it is otherwise appropriate to grant the dispensation.
- 8.4 Any dispensation granted must specify the period for which it has effect, and the period specified may not exceed four years.

9. Sensitive Information

- 9.1 Paragraphs 9.2 and 9.3 apply where:
  - (a) a Councillor or Co-opted Member of the Council has an interest (whether or not a disclosable pecuniary interest), and
  - (b) the nature of the interest is such that the Councillor or Co-opted Member, and the Monitoring Officer, consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to the Councillor or Co-opted Member, or a person connected with that Councillor or Co-opted Member, being subject to violence or intimidation.

- 9.2 If the interest is entered in the register of interests, copies of the register that are made available for inspection, and any version of the register published on the Council's website, must not include details of the interest (but may state that the Councillor or Co-opted Member has an interest the details of which are withheld under this provision of the Code).
- 9.3 Where a disclosable pecuniary interest is not entered on the register of interests and would otherwise require disclosure at a meeting, the Councillor or Co-opted Member shall be entitled to merely disclose at the meeting the fact that they have such an interest in the matter concerned.

10. Removal of entries in the register

- 10.1 An entry in the register of interests will be removed once the person concerned:
- (a) no longer has the interest, or
  - (b) is (otherwise than transitorily on re-election or re-appointment) neither a Councillor nor a Co-opted Member of the Council.
